

Notices 4.17.2020

The beautiful flowering cross in front of our church with the Alleluias that Daniel had the children collect at the beginning is the celebration of the Easter message. A big thank you to all who contributed to this tradition bringing some sense of normal to our surreal existence. We are grateful to all who celebrated the joy and hope of Easter by joining us for our Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, and Easter Sunday remote services. Although virtual are only a substitute for in person services, in this time of social distancing and isolation it was great to hear, see, and share Easter with so many of our Church family.

Since our shelter in places lives remain our new normal, we will continue to worship virtually for now. If you know someone who is not receiving the weekly invitation to the service, please let Norma know at the church office(603.298.8096 or office@WestLebCongo.comcast.biz)so we can send it to them. This Sunday invitation went out on Thursday and John Tostenson is our host and will be offering the message this Sunday. See below for help with Zoom.

Thank you to all that are being so diligent in sending in their pledges and continuing to support our church. It is truly appreciated during these unusual times.

The women of the church are continuing to meet on Thursday mornings for conversation at 9 am. The deacons and trustees met on Thursday night starting with a joint meeting at which was discussed that the search committee is progressing and we have applied for the payday production program which will assist with paying our staff. The two groups then split and continued to meet separately. The deacons talked about continuing to offer virtual services for the foreseeable future. We are looking forward to an outdoor service in our parking lot as we have in the past. We are also looking to join with another church to possibly offer services together. The deacons will meet again on May 14.

As the weather continues its roller coaster ride, I do hope you able to get outside and see the signs of spring, the buds on the trees, the flowers blooming and the birds singing, the signs of resurrection and hope.

Faithfully yours

Nancy Simpson
