

Weekly Newsletter #5

Dear friends

News from our church is that life does continue. Donna was in early this week giving the carpet a good scrub so when we all return to the Kilton Room it will be ready. Norma has been there answering the phone and passing along messages and keeping us going. The men's group met on last Saturday and the women this past Thursday and will meet next Thursday morning. The trustees and the deacons will Zoom meeting next Thursday, April 16 at 6:30.

We had our first service on Sunday and did communion on Thursday as 27 of us celebrated Maundy Thursday with Daniel leading us. Daniel will be leading us on Easter as well(separate invitation will be sent). We will be doing the flowering cross on Easter Sunday. The cross will be out on the steps on Friday. Drive by any time on Sunday to put flowers in the cross that will be on the front stairs of the church. At sunset a picture will be taken and posted on our Facebook and sent out with next week's news.

On a sad note, we learned this week that Greg Schwarz passed away this week. Please keep Susan and her family in your family in your prayers.

Another quiet week pass here in the Upper Valley. The news from other parts of our country are filled with sad and grim news. The weather has been beautiful one day and dismal the next. I hope you have been able to get outside and enjoy those beauty filled days. The trees are showing signs of new growth and there are green leaves poking from the garden. I can see crocus with their purple blooms from my seat at the computer. All are letting me know that life is coming back. As we reach Easter Sunday let us find joy in the season and enjoy each day.
